

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Identification information of a document is read from the document. At least one operation requirement is specified and selected according to a 5 document profile related to the identification information by referring to a security policy describing a handling rule concerning the document. An operation with respect to the document is controlled according to the operation requirement.